FUNERAL OF J. H. STALLMAN. - Th FUNERAL OF J. H. STALIMAN.—The obsequies of John H. Stallman took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from his late residence, corner Ohio and South Broadway streets. A large crowd gathered at the house, where religious services were conducted by Revs. D. A. Cunningham and James Moffat, and appropriate selections were sung by several singers from some of church choirs of the city.

singers from some of church choirs of the city.

The remains were interred at the Peninsula Cemetery, and were followed to the grave by a long procession of hacks and carriages, and Wheeling and Cyrene Commanderies of Knights Templar. The Knights were hraded by the Mathews Light Guards' drum corps, and marched by the side of the hearse. The following Sir Knights were pall-bearers: Edward Asschutt, Benj. Fisher, Wm. Rose, J. H. Williams, J. L. Dougherty, F. C. Winship, John McMotris and John Bane.

GREENWOOD CEMETERY.-We paid visit to this beautiful resting place of the dead on Saturday evening and found it looking more attractive than we had ever seen it before. The increase in beautiful and costly monuments from season to seen it testore. The increase in oesaint and costly monuments from season to season is quite noticeable, as is also the growth of trees and shrubbery, and the more extensive improvement and adornment of the grounds by the company and by individuals. It is really worth a drive out the pike to visit this beantiful spot. One of the most noteworthy lots in the cemetery is that of the Franzbeim estate, and certainly no spot in a buriat ground could be made more attractive. Greenwood must now be considered our leading cemetery, albeit the Peninsula grounds at this season of the year present a picture to the traveler along the pike that is likewise very attractive.

Wm. M. Jackson was muleted in the sum of $20 and costs for abusing his wife. In the absence of the ducats Jackson went to the stone pile.
